One event was reported from Precinct #902- Before the polls opened at 7:00 a.m. on November 6, 2007 the optical scan memory card failed when the poll workers were setting up the equipment. A complete scan replacement unit with a new memory card was submitted shortly after the polls opened.

The Canvassing Board reviewed and acknowledged Legal Advertisement titled "Important Election Information" published on October 14, 2007 in the Daytona News Journal.

The Canvassing Board agreed for the handling of multiple ballots found in one envelope to be as follows: "To Accept ballots, IF number of voter signatures on certificate envelope matches number of ballots enclosed (this is the option used by County Canvassing Board).

Absentee ballots were presented to the Canvassing Board members. Voter signatures had been checked and verified by personnel from the Supervisor of Elections office. There were no multiple ballots contained in any one envelope.

Absentee ballots were checked by the Canvassing Board members for voter signatures.

151 ballots were presented, inspected and accepted

1-ballot was returned "undeliverable"

2-ballots were returned marked "temporarily away"

Ballots were prepared for processing in the Accu-Vote.

The Canvassing Board witnessed the Logic & Accuracy Test and running of zero total tapes for absentee ballots. No absentee ballots were presented to the Canvassing Board for duplication. Absentee Ballots were processed through the Accu-Vote. The report for absentee votes cast was presented verified and accepted by the Canvassing Board.

The Canvassing Board did not receive any un-scanned ballots.

The Canvassing Board witnessed the Logic & Accuracy Test and running of zero total tapes for Provisional ballots.

The Volusia County Department of Election Staff researched the history of the 7 provisional ballots before turning them over to the Canvassing Board. The Canvassing Board reviewed all 7 Provisional ballots and accepted 4 Provisional ballots and rejected 3 Provisional ballots. The 1st ballot marked for rejection was due to the voter not being registered by the October 8, 2007 registration deadline. The 2nd ballot marked for rejection was due to State law requiring a voter must vote in precinct where registered. The 3rd ballot marked for rejection was due to no information listed.

The Canvassing Board, on the recommendations of the Volusia County Department of Election Staff, accepted 4 Provisional Ballots that met the criteria and were counted as valid. The report for Provisional votes cast was presented, verified and accepted by the Canvassing Board.
