CALL TO ORDER

Mayor Thomas called the Special Closed Meeting to order at 5:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers, 104 N. Riverside Drive.

City Attorney Ansay stated she and City Manager Barlow are asking that they have a Special Closed Meeting to seek the advice of the City Council related to the litigation involving the Department of Community Affairs and the City of Edgewater as it pertains to both the Restoration Comprehensive Plan Amendment, there is also a separate proceeding that is also pending related to the Restoration Development Order.

Mayor Thomas stated this was going to be a closed attorney client session between the City of Edgewater City Council and its City Attorney. They will commence and those not authorized to attend will be asked to exit the room during the course of the meeting. He expected the closed session to take approximately one to two hours. The names of those who will be in attendance are as follows: Mayor Michael Thomas, Councilwoman Harriet Rhodes, Councilwoman Debra Rogers, who was not present at this time, Councilwoman Gigi Bennington, Councilman Ted Cooper, City Manager Tracey Barlow and City Attorney Carolyn Ansay. Staff is not permitted in the closed attorney client session.

City Attorney Ansay stated by law they are required to have a court reporter and she was waiting for them in the main Conference Room.

The Council returned to the Council Chambers. Mayor Thomas stated the closed attorney client session had been concluded. He reopened the public meeting and adjourned the Special Meeting.
