

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the first Earth Day was enacted in 1970 and engaged over 20 million Americans to advocate for a cleaner environment and,

WHEREAS, Earth Day focused on bringing heightened awareness to several critical environmental issues thus, resulting in the passing of the Clean Air, Clean Water, Endangered Species and Marine Mammal Protection Acts and the founding of the Environmental Protection Agency and,

WHEREAS, recognizing the importance of preserving our natural resources by being good stewards of our community, city, county, state, nation and earth and,

WHEREAS, do our part by reducing waste, collecting garbage, planting trees, encouraging pollinators and,

WHEREAS, teach our children how to be responsible and devote time and attention to issues of sustainability and environmental health and,

WHEREAS, Earth Day is an annual reminder of the constant need for environmental activism, stewardship commitments, and sustainability efforts;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Diezel DePew by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Edgewater, Florida do hereby proclaim April 26, 2025 as

EARTH DAY

and encourage all residents to participate in programs and activities that will deepen their environmental awareness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Edgewater to be affixed this 19th day of May in the Year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-five.

Mayor Diezel DePew

City Clerk Bonnie Zlotnik