Community
BEAUTIFICATION AWARD
Nomination 2025

DO YOU KNOW A PROPERTY WITH LOTS OF CURB APPEAL? Edgewater's Beautification program recognizes community residents and businesses who make Edgewater an even nicer place to live by creating and maintaining beautiful landscaping with harmonious design, layout, proportion, balance, color and eco-friendliness as well as projects that show civic pride by beautifying buildings with improvements such as attractive additions, decks, paint schemes, shutters or planter boxes.

WHO CAN ENTER
The Beautification Award is open to any home or business in Edgewater. Properties must comply with the City's Code of Ordinances. Home or business owners may nominate themselves or another property they consider beautiful.

Nominations made on behalf of another must be formally accepted by the nominee. By self-nominating or by accepting a nomination, you grant the City of Edgewater the right to publicly use your name, address and photographs of your property.

JUDGING & DEADLINES
The Community Beautification Award program is administered by Edgewater's Recreation & Cultural Services Board. Following review of Nominations each Spring, the Board will evaluate properties and determine winners. June 30th is the deadline to submit a Nomination.

WINNING PROPERTIES
Beautification Award winners will be announced by July 3rd and a Beautification Award sign will be displayed at winning properties.
